

6516208573.txt

I have not listened to local radio since I got XM a year ago. I never listened to weather/traffic reports before I had XM. Now I listen to it at least twice daily and I am interested in other cities' traffic so it is an incredible tool. I am a sales rep and in my car all day, so I listen a lot. Please leave XM alone and work on more important problems like cleaning up the internet and the programs on prime time TV.